

POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

A possessive pronoun shows ownership or belonging. It takes the place of a noun that shows ownership. My, your, his, her, its, our, and their are possessive pronouns.

- A. Circle the subject pronoun in each sentence. Then underline the possessive pronoun. Use these answers to fill in the chart.

- I am planning a trip with my family.
- Will you wear your sunglasses?
- He will bring his camera.
- She will take her dog along.
- It will eat all its food.
- We will enjoy our vacation.
- They will show their pictures.

Subject Pronouns	Possessive Pronouns
I	my
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

- B. Underline the possessive pronoun in each sentence.

- The desert is their home.
- Her umbrella blocks out the sun.
- That javelina likes to play his guitar.
- His address is 1 Tumbleweed Avenue.
- Coyote said, "My stomach is growling."
- "I'll blow your house down," Coyote shouted.
- Its walls are made of tumbleweeds.
- "Our house is strong," the third javelina said.