

Possessive pronouns show ownership or belonging. They take the place of nouns that show ownership. My, your, his, her, its, our, and their are possessive pronouns.

POSSESSIVE PRONOUNS

A. Complete each sentence. Write the correct pronoun in () on the line.

- Nicole likes to pick apples at _____ farm. (we, our)
- Autumn is _____ favorite season. (her, she)
- Dad says, "Please use _____ special basket." (I, my)
- It was _____ birthday present from Grandpa. (he, his)
- Dad said that _____ handle was carved by a famous artist. (their, its)
- I tell Dad, "We will not forget to take _____ basket." (your, you)
- Later, my mom and dad enjoyed _____ apple pie. (their, they)

B. Read each sentence. Write the possessive pronoun that can replace the underlined word or words.

- The art project was due soon, but Zach's computer was broken. _____
- My brother was using my family's computer. _____
- Zach borrowed Angela's computer instead. _____
- He loaded a picture into the computer's scanner. _____
- Zach's idea was to stretch the picture into a funny shape. _____
- Tim's and Ming's projects were exactly the same! _____

C. Write a sentence using the possessive pronouns my and her.
