BODIE

STATE HISTORIC PARK

Tucked away in a lonely valley in the Bodie Hills, the historic ghost town of Bodie reminds people of California's gold-mining history. Come visit Bodie and see what life was like in the 1800s.

Some of the original buildings still stand, including this miner's cabin, built in 1884.

1859	1876	1892	1932	1942	1962
	The Standard Company discovers a large supply of gold and silver.	A fire destroys much of the town. Bodie starts to become a ghost town.	Another fire destroys much of the remaining town.	The last mine officially closes.	California makes Bodie a state historic park.

STRATEGY PRACTICE

What information does the image of the cabin give that the description of Bodie does not?

SKILL PRACTICE

Read the item. Write your response.

1. What information does the picture's caption provide?

2. What event triggered Bodie's decline and when did it happen?

3. Use the timeline. How many years passed between the last mine closure and Bodie's becoming a state park?
