History

Nancy Hart lived during the American Revolution. She was tough and smart. She was an expert hunter. She knew how to make medicine from plants. She lived with her family in Georgia.

There are many stories about Hart. Once, British soldiers came to her house. They made her cook them food. Hart got their guns and shot two of them. She held the others captive until help came.

Hart was a spy. Sometimes, she dressed up as a man. She visited British camps and listened to what they said. Then, she told the American soldiers.
