The way we act in public is important. We can be kind and caring at school, in stores, and at the park. We show our best manners everywhere we go.

Story 1	Story 2
The students were playing soccer on the school field. Millie wanted to play, but no one asked her. She waited and waited. Still, no one asked her to join. Finally, she walked out onto the field and grabbed the soccer ball. Everyone was very angry. Millie wouldn't give the ball back. One of the students asked Millie why she took the ball. She replied, "Because you wouldn't let me play. You wouldn't even give me a chance."	The students were playing soccer on the school field. One of them noticed Millie standing on the sidelines, looking very sad. He walked over to her and asked, "Millie, what's up? Why are you so sad?" Millie answered, "I'd really like to play, but I don't know how." The boy replied, "You can play. I'll show you what to do." This made Millie very happy.
